Keeping SENCOs
up to date
and in touch

SENCo Net

These termly twilight meetings have been running successfully for over 16 years and are well attended by mainstream primary and secondary SENCOs who value them as an opportunity to keep up to date with national and local developments related to SEN/D and to share local good practice.

- National and regional updates in relation to SEND from the DfE, Ofsted, NASEN, latest research and links to new SEND resources.
- Regularly attended by SENA, Psychology Service, Specialist Teaching Services, Health and Social Care representatives who provide important updates regarding their services and answer questions.
- Sharing good practice from other local schools.
- Comprehensive briefing paper provided at each meeting with web links and guidance materials.
- LA teams available to answer queries related to issues arising and follow up on requests for information and support.
- Organised and facilitated by Kate Browning and Pat Bullen; distinct from any other SENCO network group.

Cost: On-line meeting - £25 per school | Face to face - £40 per meeting per school
SENCOs and one extra additional member of staff can attend - Refreshments included (face to face meetings)
